

ANOTHER OFF DAY

Drummers Defeated Savages Sunday by 7 to 5 Score.

But Des Moines Was "Easy Meat" Saturday Afternoon.

The same old Sunday game! And Bill Rapps—o-o-h!

Big Swede Wideman failed the Savages in the fourth inning Sunday afternoon and was removed for incompetency after he had allowed Holland's Drummers to start a three run rally, and this added to Cochran's costly error in the seventh permitted the Missourians to win by the score of 7 to 5.

After Wideman and Cochran had presented the Missourians with the contest, Jimmy Jackson marshaled his men in a desperate rally, but the day had already been lost and a game fight was the best they could do. At that there was a good chance if our own Bill Rapps had only "produced."

The game started inauspiciously. To begin with, it was delayed 15 minutes waiting for the umpire who had acted like a real umpire and gone to Wichita instead of coming here where he was expected to work. Grover and Vance were pressed into service and gave very satisfactory service. But player umpires make a game taste like cake and vinegar.

Wideman At Off.

The Joes began to get next to Wideman early in the afternoon. In the first inning Goldie Rapp touched him for a single. In the second Williams drove out a double and was scored by Fisher's single. And in the fourth inning the big Swede made Greely, Kansas, look like a poor producer of pitchers.

Rapp again started musing up things by drawing a walk. Watson followed with a single and Goldie scored when Trainer fell all over right field trying to pick it up. Williams laid a two-bagger into left, scoring Watson, and when Tonneman grounded out, Wideman told the crowd that the old reliable, was brought to the mound and after allowing a walk, a hit and a score retired the side. From then on to the eighth he pitched good ball allowing only two hits, but in the last of the eighth he was relieved to allow Grover to bat and Lefty Clunn finished the game in good style.

The Winning Scores.

The Joes scored their fifth run in the fifth session when two walks and a fielder's choice that failed permitted Page to cross the plate. The last two Drummer runs were made in the old seventh. Page and Rapp singled after Flannigan had struck out. Watson flew to Trainer making the second hand down and things were looking good. But when Williams hit a hot one to Cochran, Honus juggled it for a minute and then made a wild heave to first that allowed both Page and Rapp to score.

The Savages counted their first run in the fourth deal when Mr. Bostick's big league base running put one over. Mr. Bostick stretched a short single into a double, went to third on a strikeout and scored on a close play when Mayer grounded out at first.

A Game Rally.

In the last of the seventh the Savages made their big rally and showed the crowd some real baseball battle against odds. Mayer led off with a walk and Jackson singled. Lattimore and Rapps both flew out, but Cochran took first on four wide ones. Jackson started to send Monroe to the bat in Dashner's place, but took a hunch, changed his mind and put in Hugs Grover. Bugs swung at two without connecting and then whiffed at a passed ball, getting first while Mayer scored. Roche followed and demonstrated his pinch hitting ability by singling to left and scoring Jackson and Cochran. Bostick ended the hand by striking out.

In the eighth Mayer was safe at first on Tonneman's error, took second when Jackson walked and scored when Rapp made an error on Lattimore's grounder. But Rapps fanned miserably for the third time and Cochran fouled out and the score board was closed.

Saturday's Game.

In the last of the series with the Des Moines league leaders Saturday afternoon the Savages had little trouble taking the big end of an eleven to five score in spite of the fact that they used three pitchers during the game.

You Bet Your Boots.

The Wolves last week they struck a streak. That made Jack Holland dizzy. 'Twould sadden us, and make us cuss, if they'd do the same to Lizzie! —Biddle Creek Bard.

Well, Des Moines lost, too. It must not have been a propitious day for the leaders.

Cochran and Bostick each negotiated two steals in one round Sunday. Bostick batted an even 500 and Jackson .566. Considering Flannigan's pitching, this was good plus.

Ewoldt got a scratch hit in Sunday's game to which he was not entitled. Mayer fielded the ball perfectly, but Lattimore failed to cover first and it was safe.

The only rare done decision the player umpires made Sunday when Rapp was allowed to remain on.

second after he had been thrown out.

The umpiring system of the Western league, by the way, was running true to form Sunday afternoon. The umpire who was to have come to Topeka made a mistake and went to Wichita instead.

Not that Grover, Vance and Monroe did not show as much class as most of the O'Neill officials do, but it takes some of the edge off of a game when the players have to call decisions against each other.

Today Jack Holland expects George D. Taylor to join his pitching staff. Taylor is a native of Richmond, Mo., and was graduated from Missouri university last week. Holland thinks he is a big find.

As an outfielder, Tonneman demonstrated Sunday afternoon that he is a good catcher. But you can't expect a fish to thrive out of water. Tonneman's natural position is behind the bat, and with a mask on his head is about as long as any catcher's.

Jack Holland says that he expects to be $6,000 behind on the season when the present road trip is completed. However, he lays most of his ill luck
